DEPARTMENT OF THE AIR FORCE
HEADQUARTERS UNITED STATES AIR FORCE
WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

Honorable John A. McCone
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington 25, D.C.

Dear Mr. McCone

29 JUN 1962

For the past three years, [redacted] of your Agency's Directorate of Plans, has served as liaison officer with the Air Force on matters pertaining to collection operations. It is understood that he is now leaving this post for another assignment within your organization.

STAT

I should like to take this opportunity to express my appreciation for the splendid cooperation and unstinting assistance given us by [redacted]. His broad experience and his perceptive, non-parochial approach to problems of mutual concern have resulted in closer working relationships between our organizations, thus serving not only our respective interests but those of the national intelligence community at large.

STAT

Please express to [redacted] our sincere gratitude for his good services and our very best wishes for continued success in his new assignment.

STAT

Sincerely yours
